

MOORISH TRAVEL - PORTUGAL EXTENSION

A PORTUGUESE FOOD SAFARI ~ HOSTED BY CHRISTINE MANFIELD

Prepared exclusively for chef Christine Manfield, this six night itinerary through Portugal is designed as a pre-tour extension to 'Moorish Travels: A food safari through Spain and Morocco'. It highlights the very best of Portugal's culinary culture, discovering the country's lesser-known gastronomic delights, before continuing on to Spain and Morocco for a rich dose of Arabic influence and Moorish flavour.

The itinerary will take in the cosmopolitan style of Lisbon, the UNESCO listed heritage sites of Coimbra and the emblematic neighbourhoods of Porto. Venturing out with local experts you'll discover hidden backstreets on foot, meet small scale producers and taste the finest wines and port direct from source. You'll learn to cook traditional Portuguese dishes alongside one of the country's finest chefs, try the world famous pastel de nata (custard tart), eat fresh seafood straight from the Atlantic and linger over a long, succulent lunch of "leitao assado da barraida" (slow roasted suckling pig), and visit a picturesque high altitude vineyard.

During the journey you will stay in a combination of stylish design hotels, boutique boltholes and exquisitely converted historic buildings ensuring the perfect blend of location, authenticity and luxury. Your host, renowned chef Christine Manfield, will enhance your journey by providing valuable insight into the produce and processes at work whilst also facilitating unique access to experiences not usually available to tourists.

Combining seamlessly with time spent in Spain and Morocco, this exclusive journey through Portugal adds a new dimension to your journey of gastronomic discovery and gives you the chance to really experience the good life of southern Europe!
