Tweed Coast Food Adventure with Christine Manfield

Epicurious Travel collaborates once again with Christine to present another personalised small group tour to the Tweed region in northern NSW.

Christine brings her wealth of knowledge and experience to guide you through the culinary highlights of the Tweed Valley and the Wollumbin caldera. Nestled amongst world heritage rainforests and dramatic mountain ranges, rich red volcanic soil and lush farmlands stretching towards some of Australia's most pristine beaches, this is where Christine resettled, moving from Sydney in early 2020, a region she now champions with her work.

During this food 5 day/4 night food adventure, Christine will lead us through a range of taste experiences - meeting regenerative farmers and artisanal producers, browsing at a local farmers market, a day of cultural immersion with local Minjunbal women of Bundjalung nation, a Tweed river cruise, private chef experience and eating at the region's best restaurants.
